LCEMS MILLAGE ISSUE The Board continued to discuss the complexities surrounding the problems with the EMS millage. With the loss of Attorney Gildner on the case, a new attorney will have to be hired. It is imperative we find out how many municipalities plan to join in the effort to question the validity of the ballot proposal.

The Board changed previous directions and suggested that the Treasurer send the money collected for the EMS millage to the County Treasurer. If in the event it must be returned to tax payers, it will be the County's responsibility to do so.

Moorhouse will work on scheduling a meeting with all the players to see who intends to move forward with legal action.

Meeting was adjourned at 3:00 p.m.
